NOTE :—The appraisal of the property at the town farm last year was $2,917 29. In making our appraisal, we have fixed values at from 15 to 20 per cent less than last year. We have now 31 cows, nearly all young, which we have supplied in place of the 23 last March and which will considerably increase the income from milk in the future. We have also furnished the town with a good pair of horses.

Report of Trustees of Town Library.

The enlarged circulation of books, which followed the increased appropriation in 1886, has not fallen off in the year now ended. The facilities for obtaining books by the additional catalogue and the opening of the Library on Thursday evenings, have been approved by our citizens. According to the records of the Librarian two thousand nine hundred and eighty volumes have been issued during the twelve months, an average of fifty eight volumes per week, conveying pleasure and profit to one hundred and fourteen families.

The number of volumes issued on Thursday evening is 1030, something more than half of the number issued on Saturday afternoon, which is 1950. No books have been lost and very few have been held beyond the time allowed by the rules.

One hundred and thirty-four volumes have been added to the Library during the year besides the monthly parts of four magazines. Of the books added, one hundred and twelve were purchased, after examination by the Trustees, fifteen were procured to fill vacancies, and seven volumes have been presented by friends.

The following list records the gifts and names of the donors.

Our Country, Dea. E. D. Boylston.

History of the 2d N. H. Regiment of Volunteers,
H. H. Parkhurst.

Proceedings at dedication of Statue of Daniel Webster,
Dr. Edward Aiken.

The Journal of the Pilgrims at Plymouth.

Reminiscences of the French War.

The District School as it was.

Daniel F. Secomb, Esq.

Our Country, Rev. Mr. Studley.

The New Englander and Yale Review for the current year 1888.

J. G. Davis.

The whole number of books belonging to the Library is fourteen hundred and ninety-four ; most of them in good order and servicable. The steady growth of the Library has required more shelf-room, a want which has been supplied by a new and capacious book-case.

Two vacancies in the Board of Trustees, by expiration of the term of office, should be filled at the annual Town Meeting.

The Report of the Treasurer, Miss L. B. Myrick, which has been duly audited, is herewith submitted.
